

February 27, 2025

The Honorable Donald J. Trump
President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President,

On behalf of American Christian Leaders for Israel (ACLI), I am honored to submit to you a historic resolution that was announced at the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Dallas, Texas on February 25, 2025. This resolution reaffirms the Jewish people's right to the Biblical Heartland of Israel—Judea and Samaria.

Our network, encompassing over 3,000 Christian pastors and organizational leaders from across the nation, including the National Religious Broadcasters (NRB), has come together to sign this crucial document. We represent millions of American Christians who steadfastly support Israel and its sovereignty over its ancestral lands.

We understand that you are preparing to make a significant statement on Judea and Samaria in the coming weeks. We humbly submit this resolution for your consideration as you formulate your policy on this crucial matter.

Our resolution is supported by prominent Christian leaders, including Troy A. Miller, president & CEO of the NRB, Dr. Susan Michael, director of ACLI and president of ICEJ-USA, and Josh Reinstein, president of the Israel Allies Foundation.

We stand ready to provide any additional information or support you may need regarding this resolution and our unwavering support for Israel's sovereignty. We look forward to your response and pray for your wisdom.

Respectfully submitted,

Enclosure: Resolution Reaffirming Jewish People's Right to the Biblical Heartland

February 27, 2025

Reaffirming the Jewish People's Right to the Biblical Heartland

Whereas the Jewish people have an enduring historical and biblical connection to Judea and Samaria, also known as the Biblical Heartland;

Whereas archaeological discoveries and physical evidence continuously reaffirm the Jewish people's historic presence in this region;

Whereas Judea and Samaria contain some of the most significant biblical sites, including Beit El, Hebron, Shiloh, Beit She'an, Bethlehem, Shechem, Jericho, and many others;

Whereas key biblical figures such as Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, King David, King Solomon, the prophets, and in the New Testament, Jesus and the apostles, lived, owned land, fought battles, taught, judged, and traveled extensively throughout Judea and Samaria, shaping the region's character and history;

Whereas despite modern propaganda claiming the contrary, Jesus was born a Jewish man in the Jewish city of Beit Lechem (Bethlehem), home of His ancestor King David, and traveled, preached, and ministered in the Roman occupied Jewish Jerusalem, Judea, and Samaria;

Whereas, despite centuries of forced exile leading to the Jewish Diaspora, a continuous Jewish presence remained in the Land of Israel, including the Biblical Heartland;

Whereas, even during 2,000 years of exile, the Jewish people maintained an unbroken connection to their heritage through language, religion, and culture and shared a collective yearning to return to the land; and

Whereas the modern Jewish presence and sovereignty over Jerusalem, Judea, and Samaria has brought tangible blessings to the land, as foretold in Scripture, improving the standard of living, safeguarding religious freedoms and sites, preserving the region's history, and enhancing the lives of all its inhabitants,

Therefore, be it resolved that

The undersigned signatories reaffirm the Jewish people's inalienable right to the Biblical Heartland of Israel and reject all efforts—both from the United States and the international community—to pressure the Jewish people to relinquish their ancestral homeland in Judea and Samaria.
